

Promoting careers in the electric energy industry.

Help build the electric energy workforce by supporting student scholarships.

2017 Silent Auction

The RMEL Foundation will hold its annual Silent Auction on September 18, 2017 at the RMEL Fall Executive Leadership and Management Convention in Tucson, AZ. All proceeds from the auction support the RMEL Foundation and its efforts to provide scholarships to students pursuing careers in the electric energy industry. The Foundation has provided over 270 scholarships totaling nearly $667,000 in the past 17 years. Your support is needed to continue to provide scholarships. Visit www.RMEL.org and click on Foundation at the top of the page for more information.

About the RMEL Foundation

The RMEL Foundation was incorporated on May 5, 1999 and received its 501(c) 3, IRS non-profit, tax-deductible status on March 3, 2000. The RMEL Foundation's purpose is exclusively for the charitable and educational purposes of awarding scholarships to deserving and qualified students in engineering or curriculum related to the utility industry. The Silent Auction was established in 2000 and the golf outing in 2001. Scholarships were first awarded in 2001. The goal of the Foundation is to grow its endowment while providing scholarships out of current income.

Auction Donation Ideas

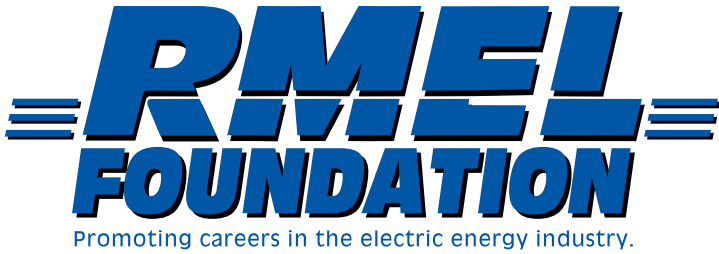

Participants typically purchase items for personal use. Every donation contributes to the overall success and money raised at the event. Creativity counts, but here are some ideas to inspire:

Popular items:

- Vacations & trips
- Hotel and condo stays
- Spa services (for women and men!)
- Golf outings and golf items
- Electronics
- Event tickets (sporting, theatre, concerts)
- Valuable artwork (sculptures, paintings, photos)
- Restaurant certificates
- Jewelry
- Tools
- Themed gift baskets
- Appliances
- Sporting goods or recreation equipment
- Services (landscaping, handyman, auto repair)

Exciting, exclusive or unique items:

- Lunch with a famous sports figure
- Autographed memorabilia
- Tour a news station, TV or radio studio
- Unique adventures such as a helicopter or hot air balloon ride
- Private lesson with a well-known chef or artist
